INSTITUTE

In Session this Week With Prof. Roark Instructing.

The Lawrence County Teachers Institute was called to order at the public school building in Louisa last Monday by Prof. M. O. Watson. By virtue of his office, Prof. Watson is president. Prof. G. M. Elam was elected vice president, and Miss Virginia Collinsworth secretary.

Prof. H. N. Roark, of Lexington, one of our State's ablest educators, is the instructor, and he is making the session exceedingly interesting. The daily sessions have been occupied in the discussion and study of the various branches and subjects of interest to the profession.

On Monday evening a program was rendered consisting of recitations and a debate. Tuesday evening an old-fashioned spelling match took place, in which Jay O'Daniel won over all the other participants.

Prof. Roark delivered a lecture at the court house Wednesday evening to a large crowd. His subject was "Man and Woman." This lecture was highly enjoyed by the audience.

Mr. G. W. Castle favored the institute with an instructive and interesting lecture on how Uncle Sam makes money.

The institute will close this afternoon. All agree that it has been a most profitable session.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

The case against Henry Holley for shooting Conductor Jack Johnson, on the Big Sandy train last month of July, was tried Friday and he was acquitted of the charge of shooting and wounding with intent to kill. This closed the criminal docket.

Thos. Topping was given a judgment for $200 against the C. & O. railroad. He had sued for $1,000 damages. The injury consisted of a lacerated thumb, which was caught by a car door just before Topping got off the train at the water tank near Carrollton.

The next case tried was that of Marion Jordan against the C. & O. railroad for injuries received about a year ago. He was a passenger and claims to have been injured by a severe lurch of the train. He sued for $1,000 and was given a judgment for $800.

The grand jury adjourned Saturday after having examined 180 witnesses. 160 indictments were returned, this being the largest number for several years. 57 of the number were for carrying concealed deadly weapons. The others were for various crimes and misdemeanors, except two felonies. One of these was the Cratt felony case, which was tried immediately after being reported last week. The other felony is for detaining a woman.

The petit jury will probably be discharged Saturday.

Court adjourned from Monday evening until Wednesday morning on account of the M. P. S. rally on Tuesday.

A WEDDING.

Married, Wednesday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents in this place, Miss Georgia Vinson to Mr. John B. Vinson, of Catlettsburg. Mr. J. M. Holland, of the M. E. Church South, performed the ceremony. The couple went to Catlettsburg on the afternoon train and will make that their home. Only relatives and a few very intimate friends were present.

The bride is the bright and handsome seventeen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Vinson. She was a popular member of a large circle of friends here, all of whom regret to see her leave Louisa. Their best wishes go with her, however, to her new home.

Mr. Vinson is an able young attorney of Catlettsburg, a man of integrity and good morals. He is City Attorney of Catlettsburg, and ex County Attorney of Boyd county, and is the only son of Hon. Z. C. Vinson.

The News sends congratulations. A number of the officers of last November election have failed to return the seals and ballot boxes to the County Clerk. The law requires this to be done by May following the election. Attend to this at once.

There are now two construction trains engaged in a work of filling the low water level of the river. The work is being done by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company. The work is being done by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company. The work is being done by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company.

We failed to mention the marriage of Reynolds Frasier, Jr., and Miss Lida Vanhook, both of Gray, in our last issue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Hewitt at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ferguson, both of whom were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Hewitt at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ferguson, both of whom were present.

The Mutual Protection Society Rally Last Tuesday.

LARGE AND ORDERLY CROWD.

The rally of the Mutual Protection Society of Kentucky, held at Louisa last Tuesday, was largely attended and the program was carried out most successfully.

The estimates on the number of visitors range from 1500 to 2000, and it was the most orderly crowd of that size that ever assembled in Louisa. They proved by their conduct that the objects of their order are sincerely carried out. They pledge themselves to abide by the laws, and especially to assist the officers in enforcing them, and in capturing violators. In this they are succeeding admirably, and the very existence of a lodge in a community insures less crime and disorder.

Members of the organization began to arrive here Monday evening. The train Tuesday morning brought large crowds, and every road poured the people into town.

Greenup, Boyd, and neighboring counties sent large delegations. A brass band accompanied them from Ashland, and the Louisa committee had the Gallup band here.

Immediately after the arrival of the train from Ashland, the parade was formed in front of the court house, and the principal streets were covered in the march. Officers J. P. Hatten, F. H. Moore, and Mr. L. H. Dunn, assisted by other members on horseback, directed the parade.

Returning to the court house the address of welcome was made by attorney H. C. Sullivan. The speaker certainly did himself proud in extending the welcome of the city of Louisa to the visitors. In well chosen words, sincerely and impressively spoken, he made his hearers feel that they were truly welcome.

Filling responses were made on behalf of the Society by attorney Joe Sweetman and W. J. Vaughan. Their words added materially to the good feeling of the occasion.

Mr. J. P. Hatten also made a few appropriate remarks. Those the time was occupied until noon.

Gov. Beckham had been invited to be present as orator of the day, but a letter of regret was received stating that it was impossible for him to attend. Hon. G. W. Castle, who was here from Washington for a few days, was invited to fill the place, and did so in the most creditable manner. His address was delivered in the afternoon in the court house yard. Fully 1,000 people heard him. After referring to the splendid work of the Society as a law and order organization he showed the possibilities of broadening its sphere so as to aid the youth in the educational and industrial lines which means so much to the future of our country. The close identity of this order, with the agricultural classes gives it the greatest opportunities in this line. Very truly did he say that "lawlessness and crime that a congenial atmosphere where ignorance prevails," and that "the hands of industry are fatal to any eruption against social order."

At the conclusion of his speech, Mr. Castle received a great and most flattering ovation from the hundreds of people who had listened to his able address.

During the remainder of the day the crowd was entertained with music, and with feats of tight rope walking. The members of the grand lodge held a business meeting in the Odd Fellows hall in the evening, and also Wednesday forenoon.

Louisa hopes to have these good citizens back here again some time in the future.

The following resolutions have been handed us for publication: Louisa, Sept. 4, 1901. Your committee on resolutions desire to submit the following report:

Arrangements Made Live Stock

EVERY COLOR.

A few of the have taken the for sale of live here on County Court (third Monday) in each month. It is intended to be a permanent enterprise, conducted for the benefit of the sellers and buyers of the various sorts of stock. It is not a money making scheme, but is simply a public spirited move which it is hoped will benefit the masses of us and surrounding counties.

The plan to bring buyers and sellers together here on those days and have sales made either privately or by auction, as the owner in each instance may prefer. Persons having any kind of live stock for sale are requested to bring it here on County Court day.

The first sale will be made at the September court, which will be the 16th.

Lots will be provided for keeping the stock in while here. Only the slightest charge will be made for anything, the only object being to get enough to pay the actual expenses of the day. A little later we expect to be able to specify just what charges there will be. For the present, however, it is guaranteed that it will be only a few cents in each case, and so low as to be entirely satisfactory.

The LEO SAMPY NEWS has agreed until further notice, to insert free of charge, advertisements of stock to be offered for sale each month. Parties intending to have stock here should send us description of it as early as possible, giving date at which it will be offered for sale. This will insure the presence of persons desiring such stock.

Let everybody help this enterprise along.

Two errors in the mention of Prof. J. H. McClure's marriage in last week's News went through without correction. The date of the marriage was the 21st, and the young lady's name was Esther instead of Mary.

Saturday evening Miss Mayme Wellman sailed en route to the lengthy list of enjoyable social functions being during this season, by the younger society folks.

Miss Heloise Thomas, that bright and popular lass of Louisa, who has lent much to the entertainment of the crowd, was again the guest of honor.

These young people spent the evening in chatting, playing games, music and dancing. Elegant refreshments were served in a very dignified manner.

The young folks returned to their home at a late hour, pronouncing Miss Wellman a charming hostess. —Catlettsburg Press.
